The Flamme project ran from July 1999 - June 2000 and provided women and women's NGOs in Africa with information about the Dakar and Beijing Platforms for Action assessment process in Africa, information about the UN and regional process, NGOs input and linkages with other regional review processes. The Flame Project was a joint initiative of APC-Africa-Women and FEMNET. This web site is now a valuable archive but is no longer updated. Here we provide links to information on the Beijing+10 process and to the debates.
